- SW3F GD Vajra Kyè Langhe Barolo 2013 470
100% Freisa
 The GD Vajra Freisa Kye comes from the San Ponzio Vineyard in the commune of Barolo. With elevation between 390-400 m, the vineyards have clay-rich soils with vines averaging 30 years of age. Sustainably farmed, the wine is aged for 12-18 months in Slavonian oak barrels and barriques until it achieves necessary balance. Made from 100% Freisa, a grape variety that is lesser known despite its ancient relationship to the Nebbiolo grape. Deep ruby in colour displaying notes of red berries, roses, tobacco and a hint of white pepper. Full bodied with balanced acidity, this wine is rich and delivers a long and lasting finish.

OLD WORLD RED WINES

ITALY

ICX1A Tenuta San Guido Sassicaia Bolgheri Toscana DOC 2400Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon

The past three vintages are often referred to as the magic trio for Sassicaia. This 2013 closely mirrors, although with totally different characteristics, the class of the previous two vintages. The 2013 is more austere and testy, even due to its extreme youth, and yet is fascinating especially in regard to its prospects. The wine has an intense ruby colour and aromas of rhubarb, mint and blackcurrant with hints of cinchona and vanilla. The flavour is taut, with thick, compact tannins that are more "nordic" and the persistence is excellent. This bold and structured wine is perfect with beef and venison. RP Rating: 97 pts

Château Margaux 1979

Cabernet sauvignon, Merlot

This wine is just currently reaching full maturity, much later than initially expected. It is a classy, elegant example of Margaux possessing a dark ruby/ purple colour, and a moderately intense nose of sweet black currant fruit intermixed with minerals, vanillin and floral scents. The wine is medium-bodied, with beautifully sweet fruit. This linear, more compressed style of Margaux possesses a good inner-core of sweet fruit, and a charming, harmonious personality. Although not a blockbuster, it is aging effortlessly, and appears to take on more character with each passing year. RP rating: 93 pts
